Communication Enhancer
TRANSCRIPT

Welcome to Your Ninth Attunement of the Wholeness Attunement Series and the Second Attunement for Relationship. These attunements are here to unlock the dormant parts of you. They are creating a new vibrational web of support, of awakening, of transformation and healing that allows you to stand in your power. It's awakening the parts of you that are already there, but have been held back due to old beliefs and traumas, ways of being, coping mechanisms, and even the individuals we may have allowed in our life and circumstances. As I talked about in our healing calls, there's this great power in you that get dimmed sometimes through emotional repression and suppression. When we discover our core as we've been doing in this program, and then allowing that core to be shined and polished by these attunements, we start to remember who we really are and we bring heaven, the part of us that lives in the infinite eternal in heaven to earth. That's it.

So we're going to start right now by really considering this new attunement, which is the communication enhancer attunement. The communication enhancer attunement will allow you to find your words. This is really enhancing your capacity to communicate with clarity and precision and syncness and love. You're going to be able to, again, as I mentioned, find your words intuitively from your heart, not the words that come from reaction. These are words that come intuitively from your heart, from the I Am pulse, the impulse of your soul that not only support you, but supports everyone. It's as if this invisible machination of the universe is there, moving through you through your word supporting you and all. That's what this communication enhancer attunement is here for. Beautiful.

So, let's just play with the mind with this. What if that were true? What if in every relationship in your life, whether it's work or family or friend or foe, that you were able to find the perfect words that vibrate at the highest levels that support you and everyone and the situation and the planet itself? What if that were true? Yeah, just consider that for a moment. Consider that possibility and, remember, even if it's just an inkling, notice that inkling because the inkling contains within it the whole. That's it. There's a powerful unwinding here as your mind moves into that consideration. Choose on that, and that creates an opening in your field of being that can accelerate the reception, and the activation, and the use and embodying of this powerful communication enhancer attunement. There we go. That's it. Feel yourself.

What might your days and weeks and years look like with this new attunement part of your frequency? What might that be like? Just take a moment and tap into that. It's just pretend. You're just playing here right now. You're just opening the possibility. As I've said with all the attunements, the attunement is going to happen regardless. You're going to be receiving it. But this allows an acceleration of that reception. That's it. There you are. Beautiful. Wow. There's a really powerful healing pulse here, as your system starts to change around this notion that you are communication expert. You have a new skill set of powerful communication. It comes from the heart that serves all. That's it. Beautiful.

Now, we're going to move into the attunement. That's it. So you know that the phases of the attunement, they start with the preparation phase and then I will let you know when the keys are coming in, the forged keys that are just for you are coming in, and then there is an integration phase. So we're going to start now as I get in touch with all of the keys and encourage their peak into the forged just for you. They are perfectly forged just for you right at this moment, and know that these attunements cannot overwhelm. They can't. It's impossible, because they are forged to perfection for you in this exact moment of time. That means you can listen again and again and again, and each time you listen, you will be forged to the perfection of you in that moment.

So you're not getting any more or any less than what you can manage and handle and what you require. So they cannot create any kind of overwhelm. While they're building on top of each other, creating momentum, they are also working together, these 21 attunements, so there cannot be overwhelm here. There's only the perfection of what you require at this moment, and they're interweaving and intermingling in that perfect frequency of this moment for exactly what you require right now. Okay, here we go.

Now we are being prepared. You're being prepared right now. The masters are coming in; the masters. The Master Orators who have influenced through perfect communication and words; the Orators that brought forward love on this planet. They are coming forward, the specialist, and they are creating a beautiful preparation of our field because they know exactly what our field looks like, what the frequency stack is, if you will. That's what they're sharing with me. They are preparing each of us. They are preparing you, specifically for your personal customized key of communication enhancer. You may feel something and you may feel nothing. It's all as it should be and just allow yourself to be present to these wonderful masters that are here, just tweaking the frequency ever so slightly to allow this attunement to integrate with ease and joy and love and harmony. That's it, and there's a beautiful unwinding happening right now.

These beautiful masters are requesting that anything that is not in alignment with this powerful high vibrating frequency of communication and answer, they're requesting that any energies that are not of that must leave now. They must leave now. That's it. They're now outside of your field, unable to come back because the frequency has changed and those energies are now moving straight into the light, being consumed beautifully and honorably by the light. There's this wonderful clear vessel within you now ready for the attunement.

Now the attunement is starting to ... the keys are coming your way. That's it. This beautiful key designed just for exactly where you're at right now, delivering exactly what you require right now, no more, no less. It's moving in and unlocking this communication enhancer energy. That's it. That's it. It's as if it's opening a pipeline to your soul to God itself, divinity itself, allowing the natural, beautiful loving impulse move through your words. That's it. That these masters are now helping with the integration as well, and they are allowing this new thread of confidence to open up. This new thread of confidence is now opening up within you. That's it.

As this powerful frequency of enhanced communication allows a clear connection to source to your soul so that you are able to hear the profound loving whispers of the soul as it moves through you through your throat chakra into the world. Friend and foe alike are receiving the wisdom, the deep soul aligned wisdom as this attunement moves through your throat chakra and aligns that beautiful throat chakra powerfully, aligns that powerful heart chakra with this attunement, and all the chakras are now aligned so the energy moves seamlessly through, easily and effortlessly. That's a really powerful healing pulse as these masters support that integration. That's it.

Oh, yes. There's a subtle softness that is here now. There's as if a little snap awakening of confidence and knowing; that is, subtle softening that's happening throughout your field that you can find your words when you need them, that support you and support everyone with love that flows through from the heavens through you seamlessly. That's it. There's a really powerful healing happening right now as that is brought into consciousness awakening. That's it.

So take a nice deep breath into this new capacity, in this new skill, superpower, gift. It feels new, but it's actually ancient and it's been with you forever and it's now brought into clear consciousness awareness and awakened in all fields of being: mind, body, spirit, emotional, mental, and physical body, humming with this new capacity. It keep reminding me it's not new, it's ancient. It's awakened capacity. That's the right word. Even if it feels new, it is just simply awakened.

When you're ready, open your eyes and feel the shift in your being. Open your eyes into this new possibility of communication with ease. Notice that if there is a communication fumble in the coming days and weeks, that it's just there to provide a moment of resistance to bring you back to this attunement, so that there's nothing wrong or bad; there's simply the old habit that's calling you into this new habit of this new attunement. So if there is any communication fumble, you can immediately use it as a point of access now into this energy knowing that there's nothing wrong or broken. There's just this beautiful adventure of life, nudging you to remember and refine this powerful attunement. And so it is. Thank you and I will see you for the next one.
